FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MUEHL AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP FROM EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

CHARLESTON -- Diane Muehl of Charleston has been awarded the 1997 Master's of Arts in Gerontology Graduate Scholarship from Eastern Illinois University.

The awarded is presented to a graduate student majoring in gerontology who shows academic excellence and leadership in pre-professional and service-related activities.

Muehl is married to Bryan Miller. They have two children, Matthew and Daniel Muehl-Miller. She is the sister of Greg and Ted Muehl of Schenevus, N.Y., and Karen Dunlap of Cooperstown, N.Y.

Eastern emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state university of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 11,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs.

The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities.

Eastern's pursuit of excellence attracts well-qualified students of an increasingly diverse population and a teaching faculty active in research and public service who utilize the latest technology.
